

Goals and Expectations of your Trip to Turkey:

The goals of the Travel Study to Turkey are to:

- Promote mutual understanding between American and Turkish educators through experience and dialogue
 - Provide broad exposure to Turkish cultural, political, economic, and social issues
 - Gain an understanding of topics, such as, Turkey's national security, foreign policy, economic development, the media, government affairs, religious diversity, minority rights, and the Gulen Movement

The expectations of participants on the Travel Study to Turkey are to:

- Actively participate in thoughtful dialogue with the people of Turkey while on the Travel Study in order to increase understanding of Turkey's history, its current economic, geographic and political environment, and aligning new learnings of Turkey to our SC Social Studies Standards
- Create a unit of study connecting the SC Social Studies standards with information participants will learn and observe from our Travel Study (due no later than 60 days after return from Turkey)
